Information pursuant to art. 13, Legislative Decree 196/2003. Your data will be processed mainly by electronic means by DBInformation S.p.A. – Viale Richard 1/a, I-20143 Milan (MI) that is the data processor – for the purpose of processing requests to take part in the event of interest and activities related to it. The provision of personal and billing data (when participation is subject to payment) is mandatory, whereas failure to provide the other data will not affect your right to obtain what is requested. Furthermore, pursuant to art. 130, paragraph 4, Italian legislative decree 196/2003, your data can be processed without your explicit consent for the purpose of sending e-mails proposing the sale of services and products similar to those purchased, unless you declare that you do not wish this. Also for direct marketing purposes, your data may be used for the sending of promotional mail to the postal address given, again provided that you do not wish this. With your consent, your mobile phone number may be used for sending you promotional sms on operations, initiatives and products of the data processor. With your consent, your data will be passed on to any partners or sponsors of the event, which they may use for their own marketing and promotional purposes. Your data can be processed by the following personnel: event organisers and members of the sales and marketing team, call centre operators, and those responsible for information services and data security. You are entitled to exercise your rights under art. 7, Italian legislative decree 196/2003, which include the right to consult, modify, delete or object to the processing of the data for legitimate reasons or promotional purposes, by writing to the data processor at the above postal address. In the same way, you are entitled to request the full and updated list of the entities responsible for data processing procedures.
